

From: sonam dorje <sonamdorje244@gmail.com>

Date: 2017-01-24 10:32 GMT+01:00

Subject: LETTER TO DHAMMAPALA GONPA

To: info@dhammapala.ch

LINGSHED GONPA CULTURAL & WELFARE SOCIETY

A Charitable, Non-Profitable & Non-Political Under Societies

Registration Act VI of 1998 (1941 AD) No.1317-S of 1987

Postal Address: Lingshed Labrang, Opposite New Bus Stand, Post Office

Leh – 19101 Ladakh, J&K, INDIA

LG/DBM/Receipt12/2017

January 24, 2017

Venerable Ajahn Khemasiri info@dhammapala.ch

Abbot, Dhammapala, Buddhist Monastery

Butschelstrasse 74, CH-3718 Kandersteg

Switzerland

OFFICIAL RECEIPT INVOICE LETTER

Respected Ven. Ajahn Khemasiri & Monks,

Lingshed Gonp's all monks and the committee members are highly appreciated to Abbot and all the monks of Dhammapala Buddhist Monastery for contributing the generous DONATION for the purpose of Lingshed Monks' Residential House Construction at Leh Ladakh in Himalaya.

The monastery monks thank for donation of Swiss Francs 900) with helping efforts through Mrs. Kathi Roth Switzerland, for welfare support to construct Lingshed Gonpa Residence House. This donation will be utilized for Monks' Residence building construction.

Lingshed Monastery (Gonpa) is situated at far flung, remote and backward in the entire region of Ladakh in Himalaya in Northern India. The roots of monastery (Gonpa) can be traced to the 12th / 13th century. Over the centuries, the Gonpa has kept alive the Buddhist spiritual tradition for the benefits of the community. Gonpa has more than 60 monks including young monks.

Lingshed Gonpa monks will use the residence rooms for staying, praying, meditating and studying Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy, Religious and Modern Education in respect of harmony, peace and loving compassion for the larger interest of all human beings in the world.

The residence rooms will also provide accommodation facilities for patients and to perform ritual ceremony of death body, those who belong to Lingshed area villages.

Dhammapala Buddhist Monastery's financial support inspires and encourages the monks to perform prayer, meditation and studying Tibetan Buddhist Philosophy, traditional religious purpose as well as the Modern Education in respect of prevailing and spreading harmony, peace and loving compassion for larger interest of all human beings in the world.

Lingshed all monks wish and pray for your success, peace, happiness, good health and good relationships among all of monks, members and donors to benefit others in this world!

Lama Tsewang Jorgyas
President/Secretary/Committee Members
Lingshed Constituency
Lingshed Gonpa Building Construction
Autonomous Hill Dev. Council Leh
Leh – Ladakh

Sonam Dorje
Councillor (Mayor)

Ladakh